OUR PURPOSE

A better future for every survivor of modern slavery which means a better society for all.

OUR FOCUS

Sophie Hayes Foundation was founded in 2011 by Sophie, a British girl trafficked to Italy for sexual exploitation.

The Foundation is the only organisation in the United Kingdom focused solely on ensuring all women survivors of human trafficking and modern slavery achieve complete and sustainable freedom, through an independence that can only come with the ability to live and work without fear.

Our programmes provide coaching, facilitation and training, we help renew survivors' confidence, sense of purpose and employment prospects. We support women survivors of modern slavery to achieve the goal of complete and sustainable freedom.

OUR VISION

A society that views and treats women survivors of modern slavery with respect and allows every freed woman to realise her potential, achieve her goals and a better future.

By putting the needs of each survivor at the centre of our activities, we will develop programmes that are relevant and help to remove the barriers to sustainable freedom.

We will be a valued, independent voice and an actor for change, working with the right partners to create greatest impact.
